

Space Topic Worksheets Maths KS2

Constellation Co-ordinates

A new constellation has appeared in the night sky. Plot the co-ordinates on the chart. Can you give the constellation a name?

(1,7)

(1,3)

(3,2)

(5,2)

(7,2)

(9,3)

(9,7)

(8,5)

(7,6)

(6,5)

(5,8)

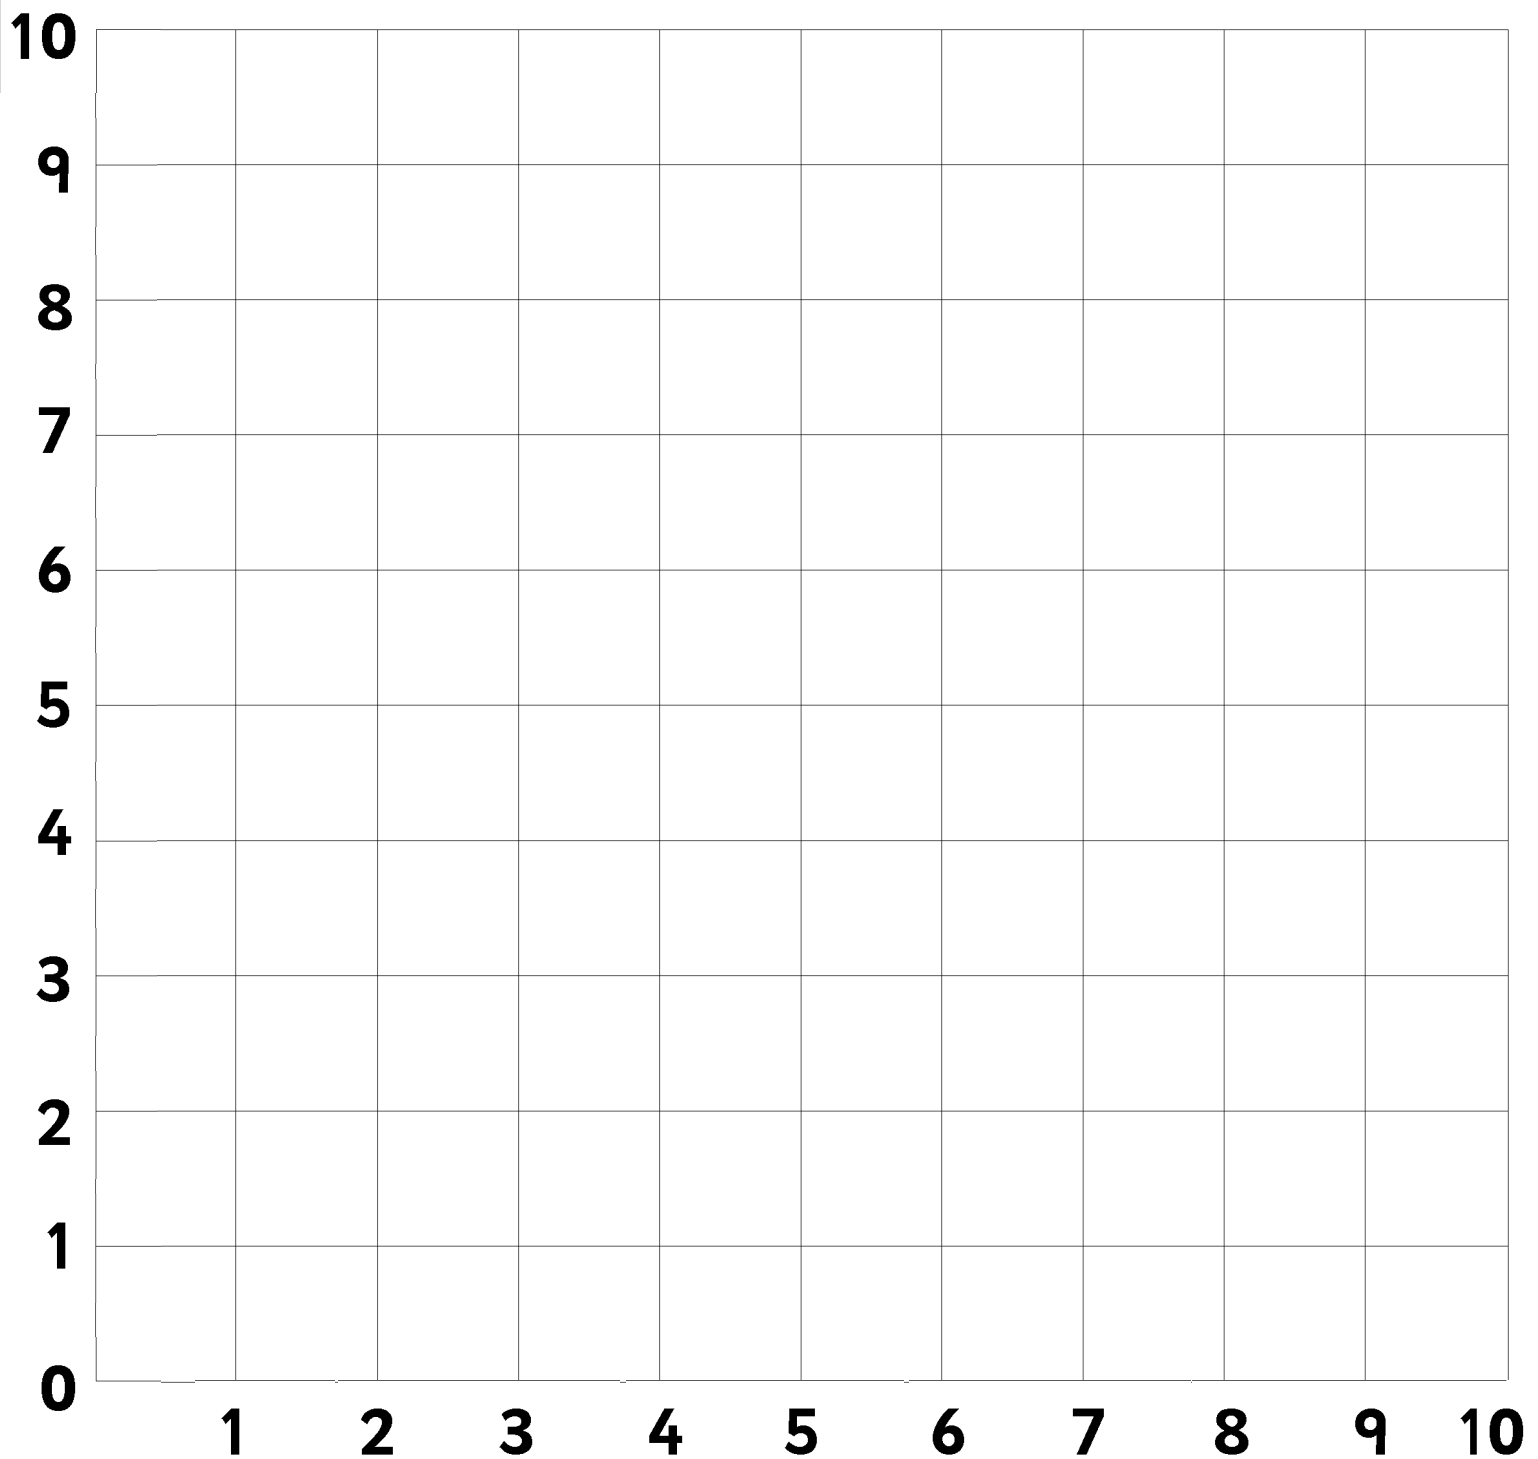

(4,5)

(3,6)

(2,5)

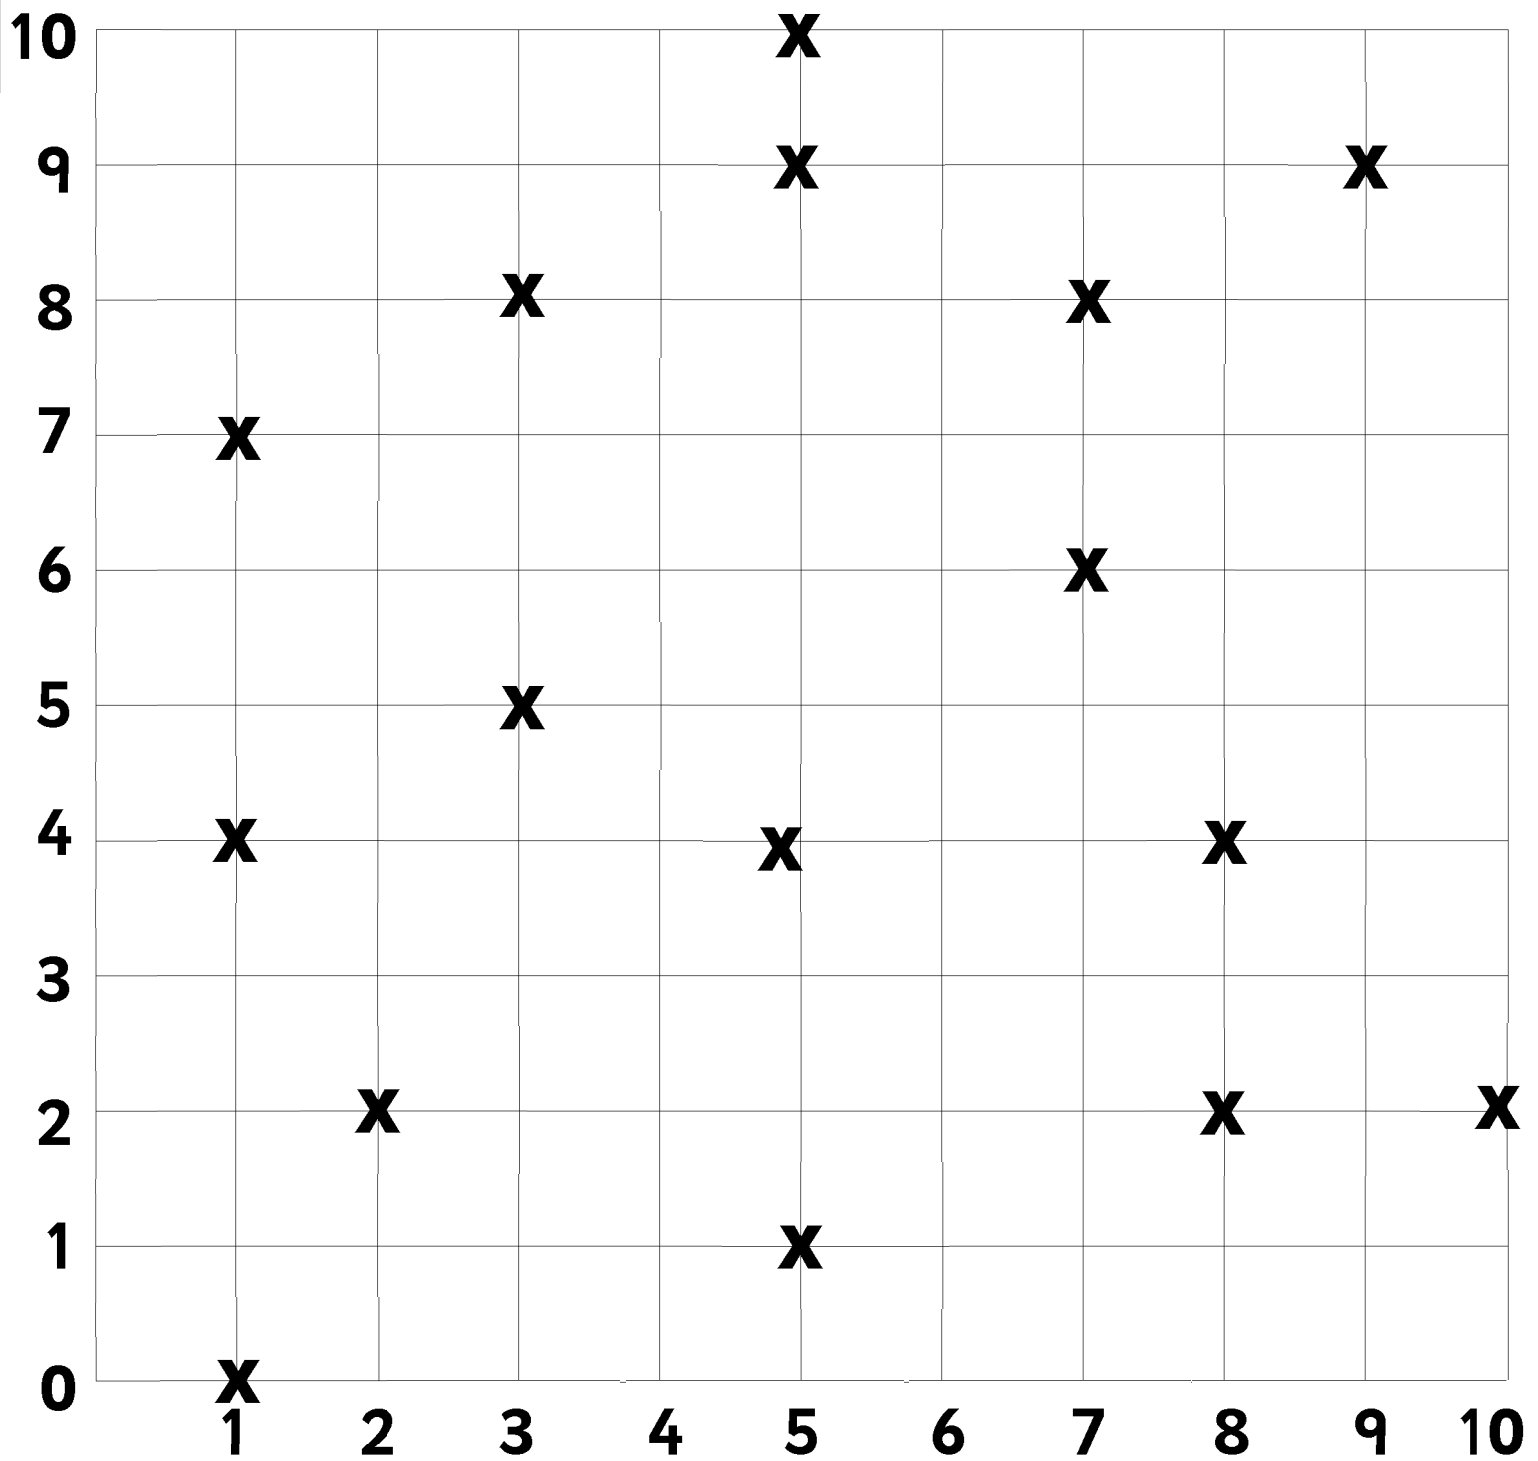

Constellation Co-ordinates

A new constellation has appeared in the night sky. Draw the constellation below and write down the co-ordinates.

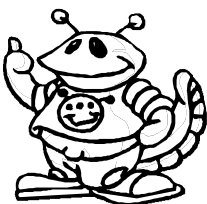

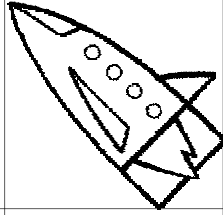

Constellation Co-ordinates

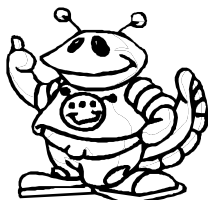

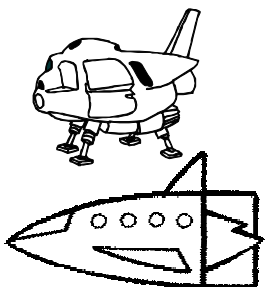

A new constellation has appeared in the night sky. Write the co-ordinates for the stars in the table below.

Zone Mapping

You have been out exploring the area around base camp. Write the location of each landmark below.

6
5
4
3
2
1
	A	B	C	D	E	F

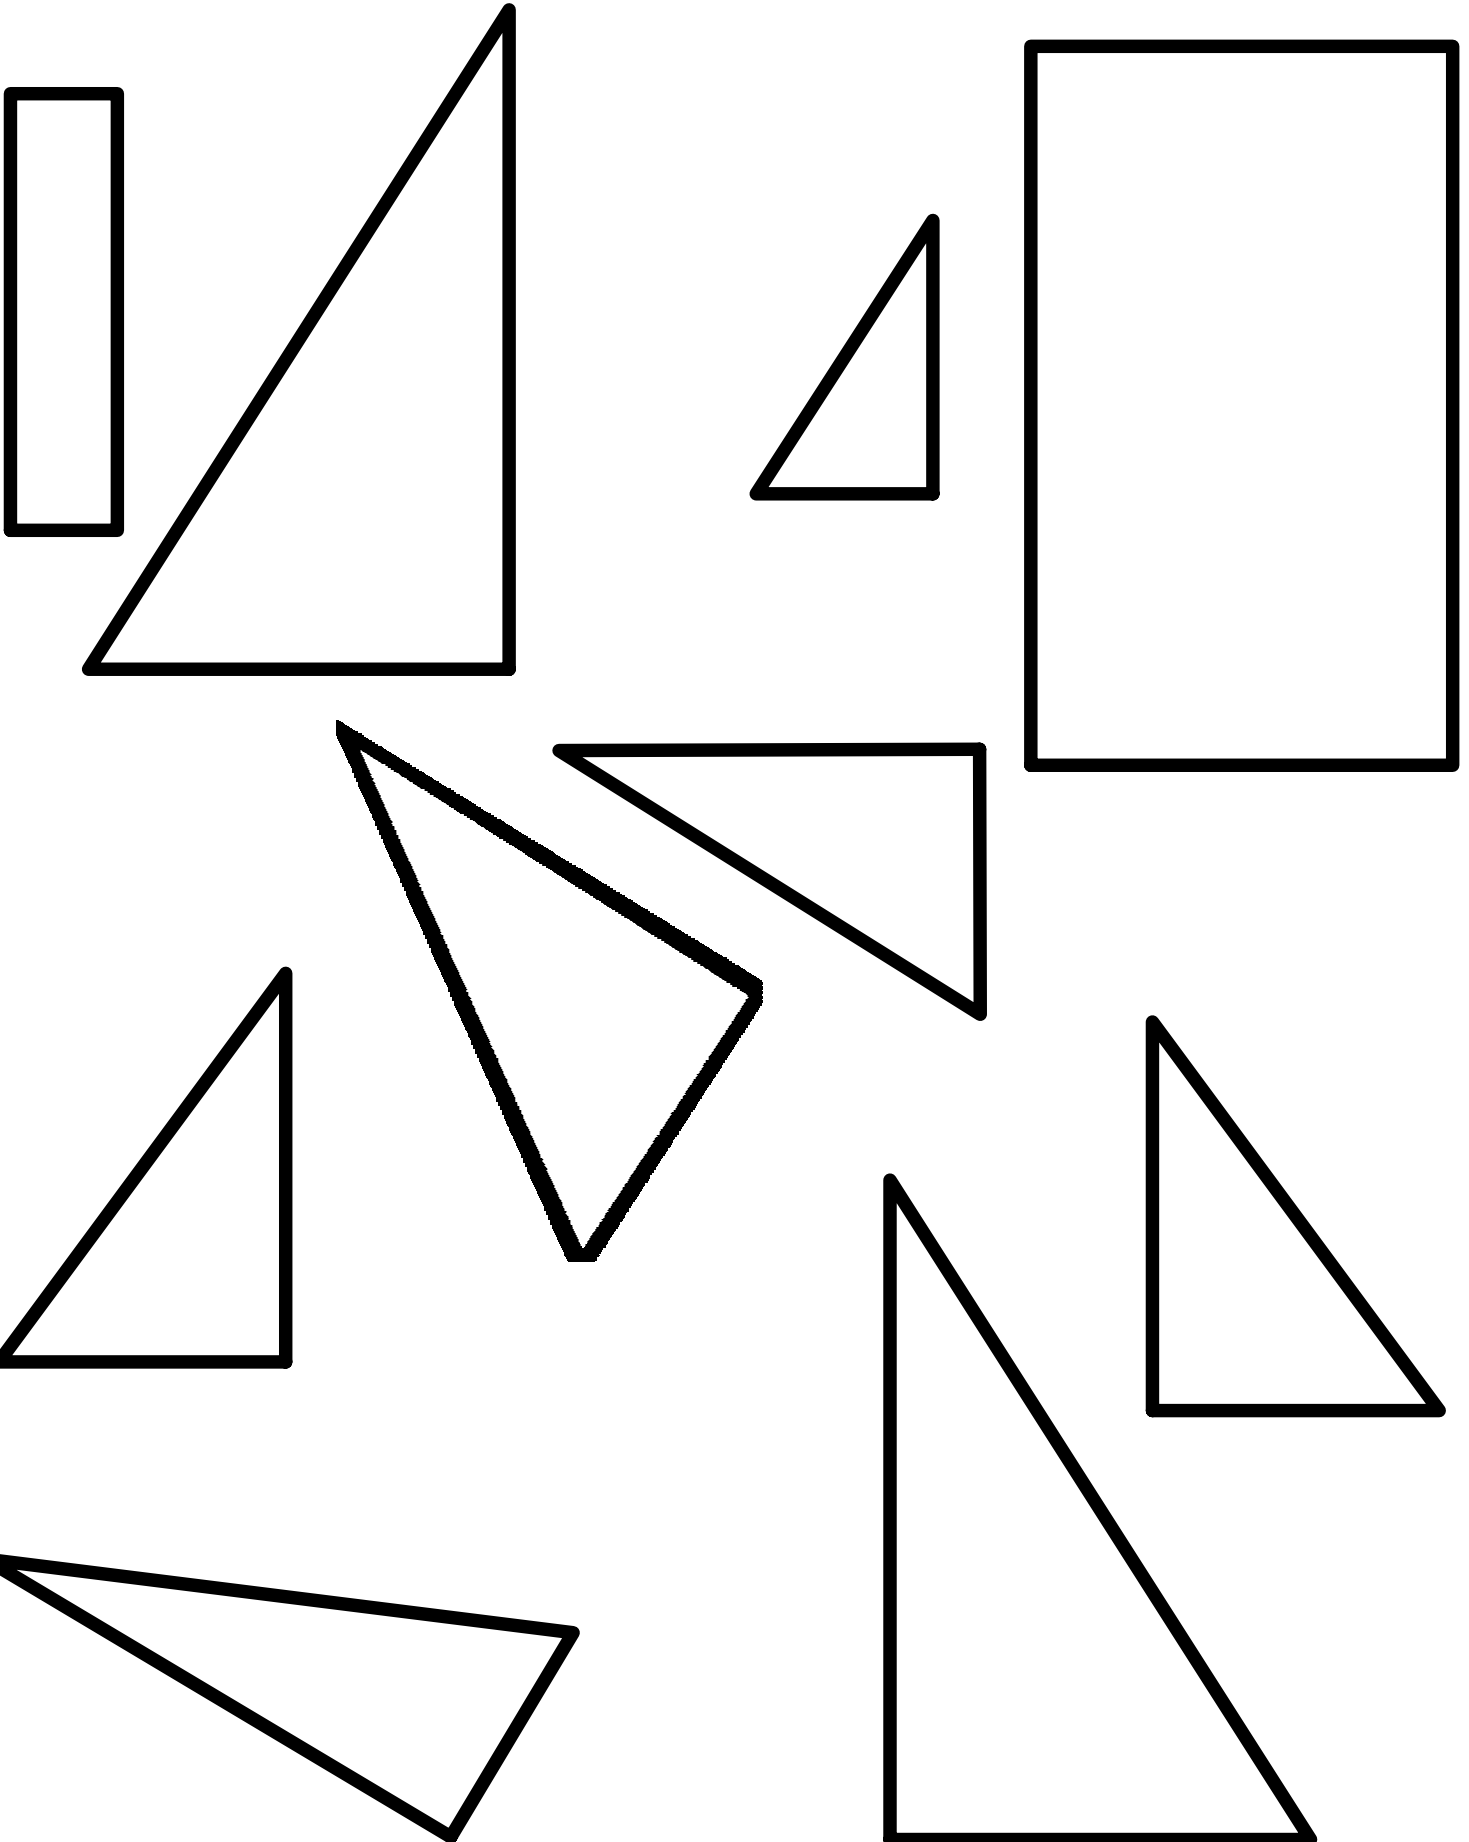

Zone Mapping

You have been out exploring the area around base camp. Draw some important landmarks you find below and write their positions below.

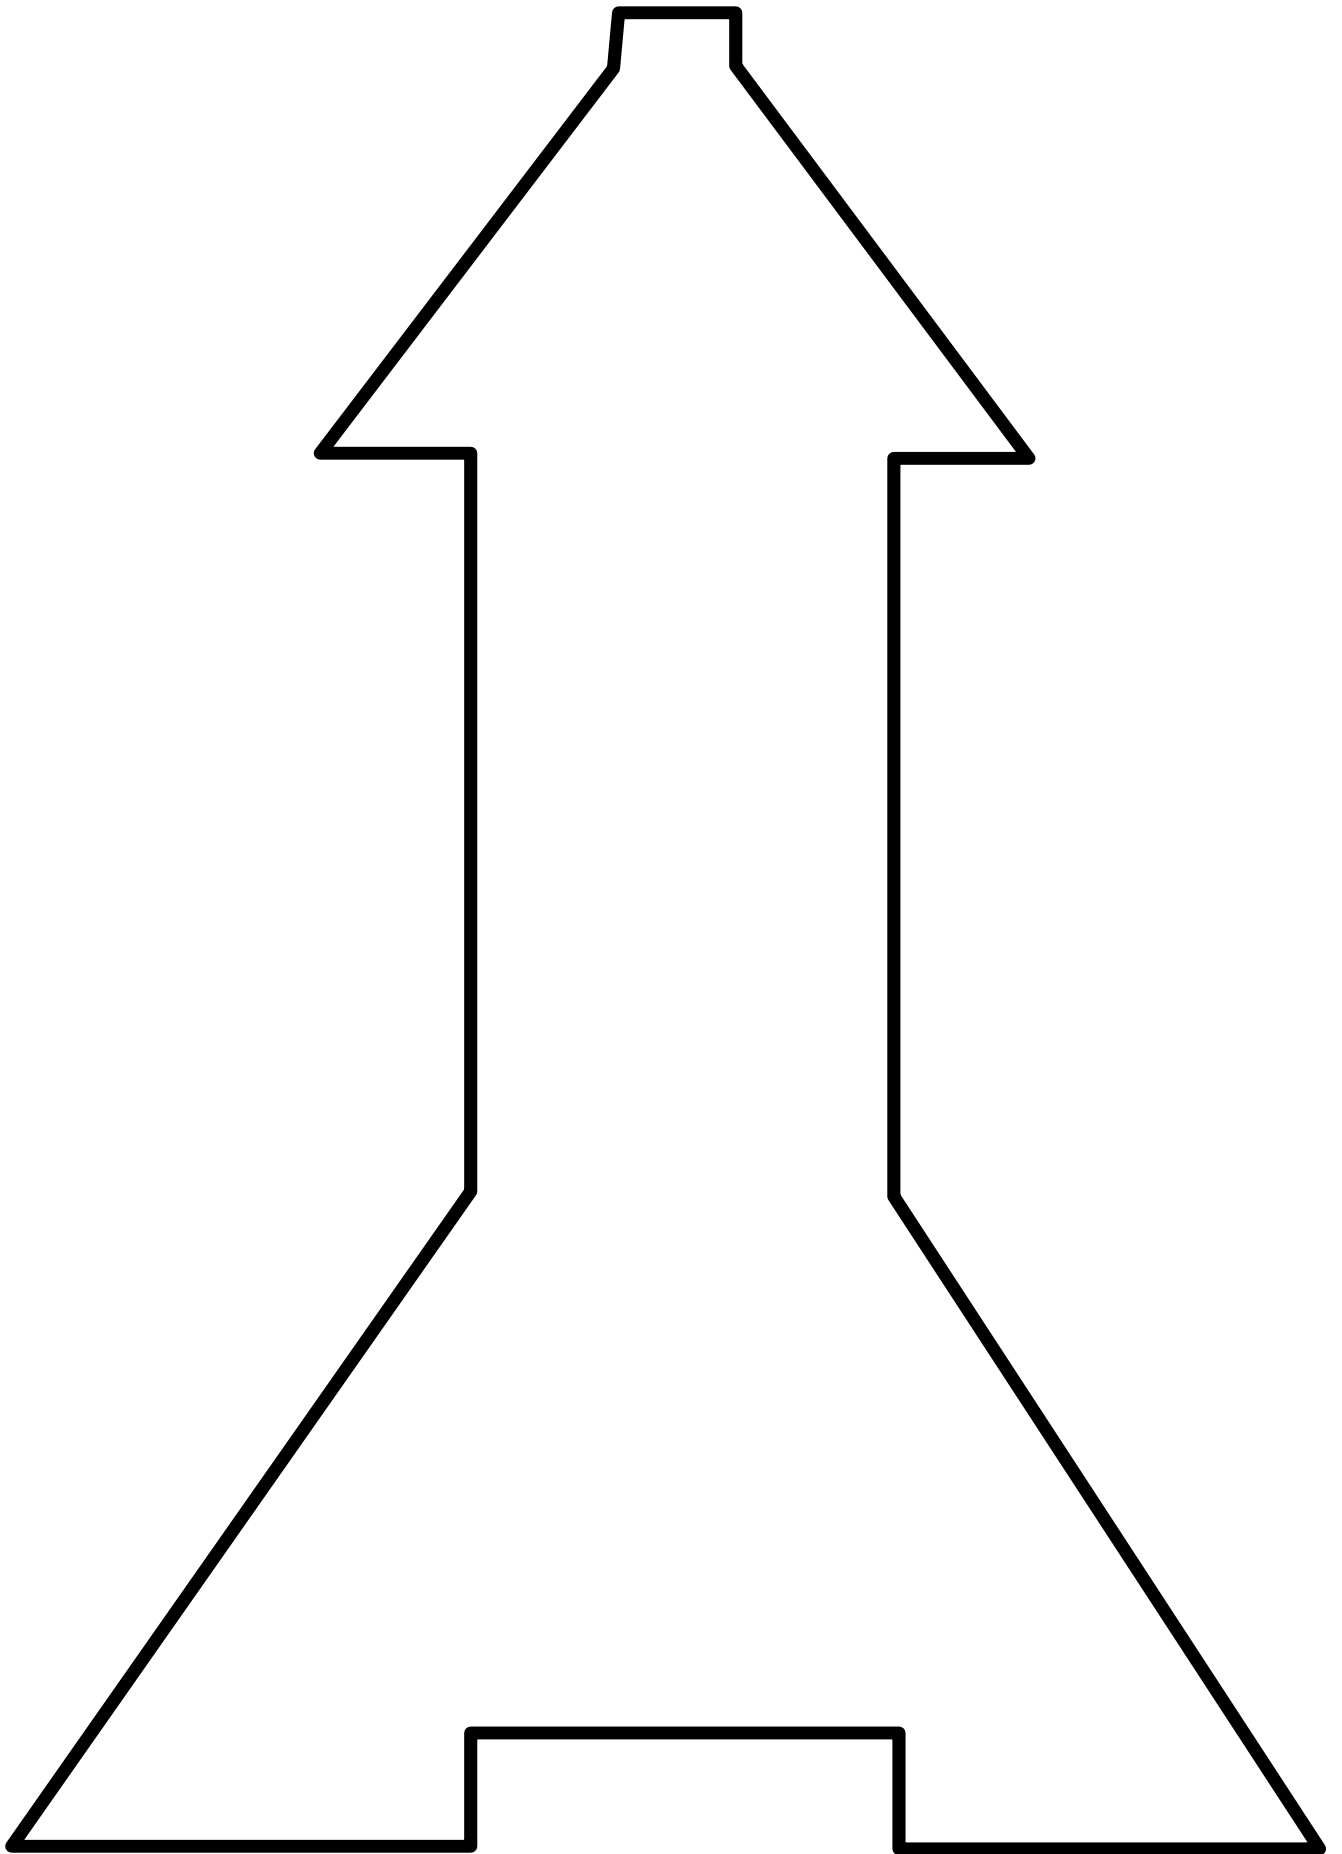

6
5
4
3
2
1
	A	B	C	D	E	F

Rocket Puzzle

Can you use the shapes below to make the picture of the rocket?

Rocket Puzzle

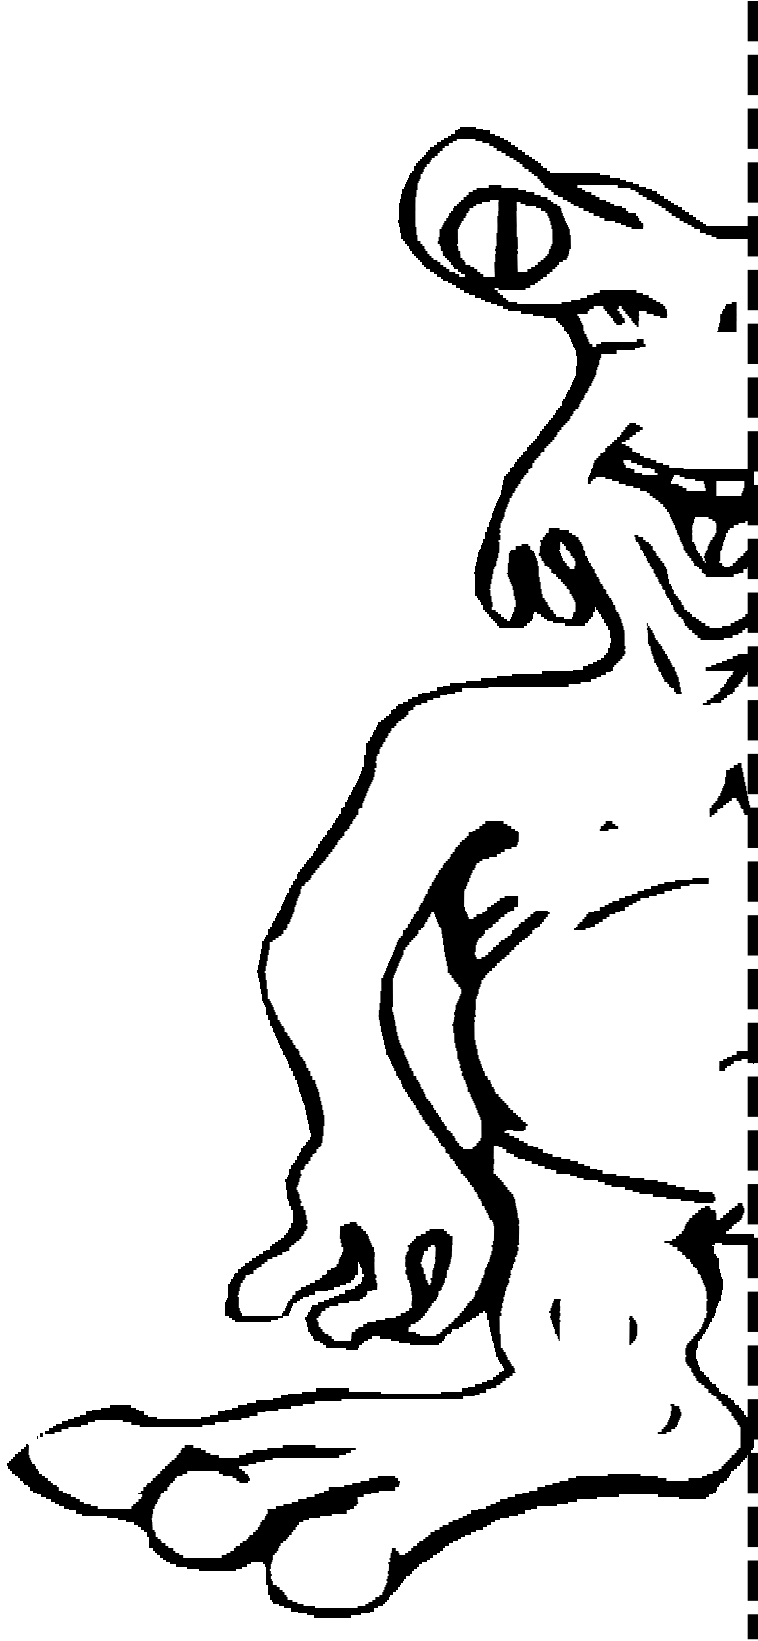

Shapes and Space

Using 2D shapes try and create a space themed picture below.

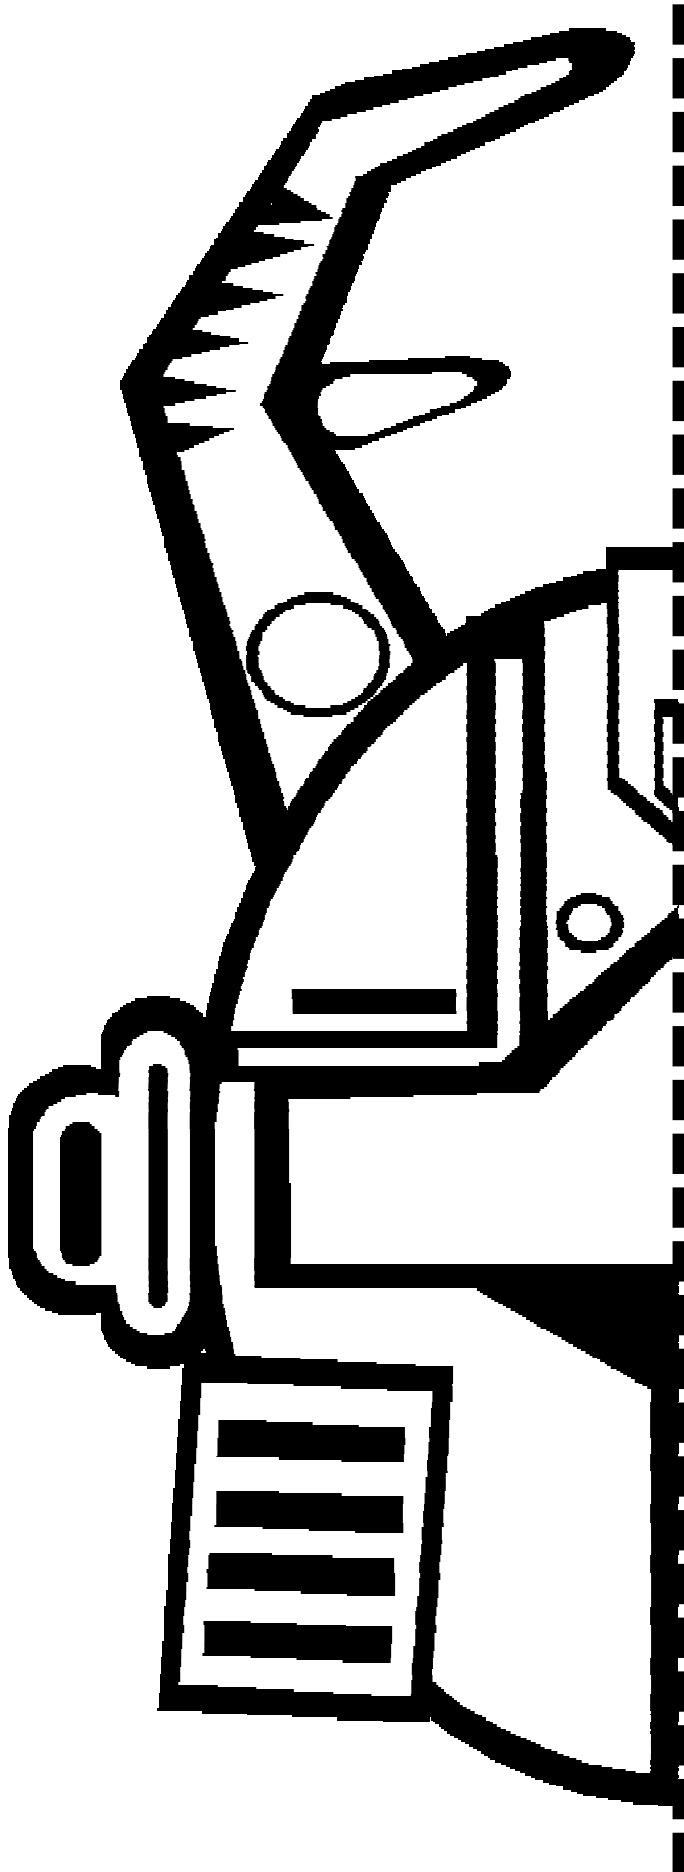

Planet Symmetria

You have arrived on a strange new planet. You soon notice that everything is symmetrical! Finish drawing the things found on the planet's surface.

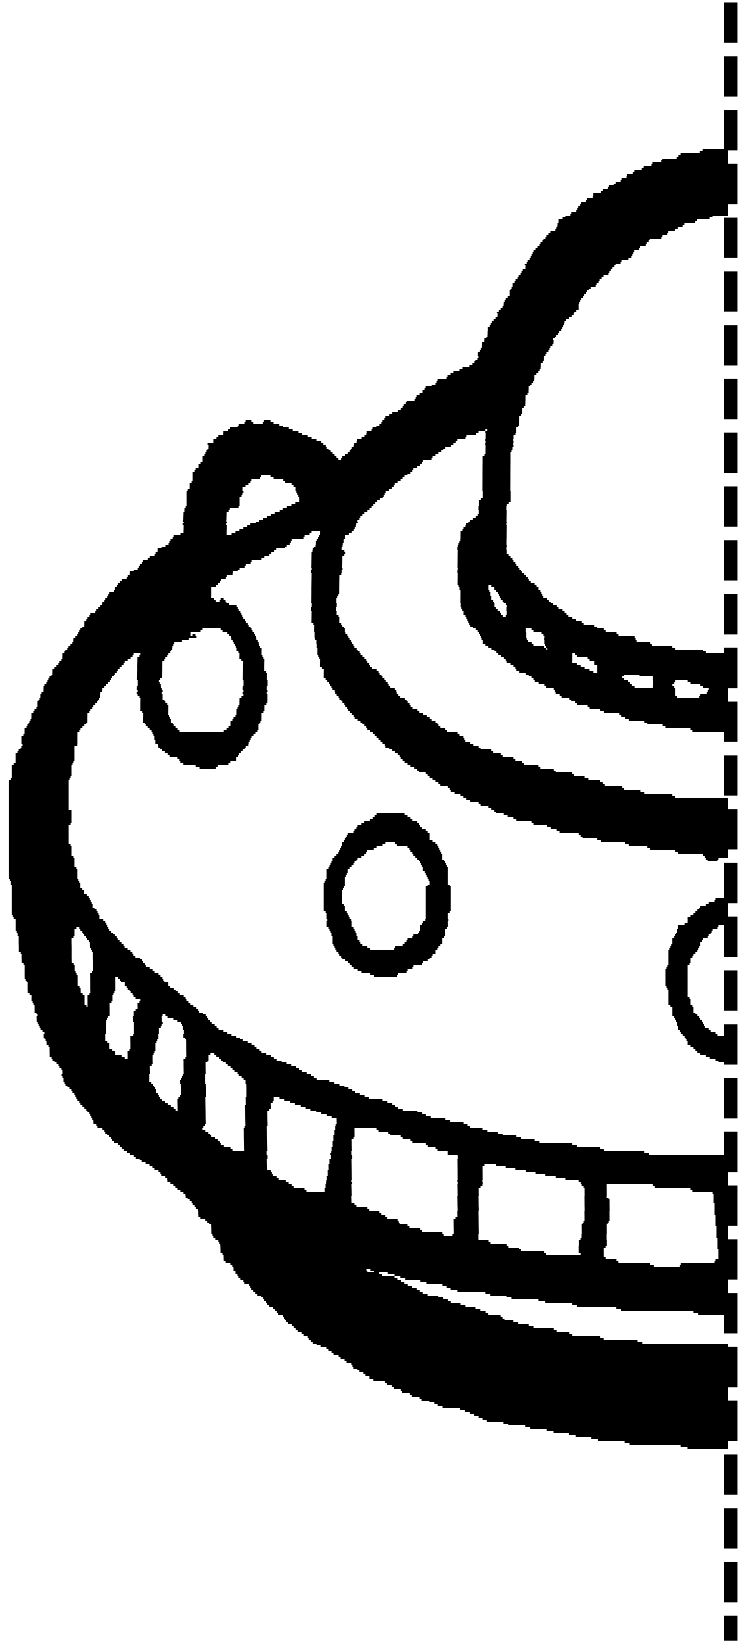

Planet Symmetria

You have arrived on a strange new planet. You soon notice that everything is symmetrical! Finish drawing the things found on the planet's surface.

Planet Symmetria

You have arrived on a strange new planet. You soon notice that everything is symmetrical! Finish drawing the things found on the planet's surface.

Planet Symmetria

You have arrived on a strange new planet. You soon notice that everything is symmetrical! Finish drawing the things found on the planet's surface.

